Liability Litigation Attorney in Los Angeles

Description

Making the 2022 list for most admired LA firms to work for, the Los Angeles office of this reputable, mid-sized firm is currently seeking both junior and more experienced liability litigation associates to join their team. Ideal candidates have backgrounds in civil litigation defense and/or asbestos or toxic tort experience, but all areas of liability experience will be considered. As a member of the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA), this firm provides attorneys with ample opportunities to gain valuable trial experience with the support of an excellent legal staff. Junior attorneys may have the chance to develop trial experience within their first year at the firm. In addition to gaining valuable experience, attorneys enjoy a competitive compensation package that includes an 1800 billable hour requirement, a three-tier bonus structure, and full benefits.

Responsibilities

- 1800 billable hour requirement
- Manage a caseload
- Conduct legal research to prepare for court proceedings and develop legal arguments
- Draft legal documents, such as pleadings, motions, and briefs
- Attend depositions, mediations, and other proceedings
- Represent clients in court proceedings, including trials and hearings

Qualifications

- 3-8 years of liability experience

Job Benefits

In addition to gaining valuable experience, attorneys at our firm enjoy a competitive compensation package that includes a three-tier bonus structure and full benefits.
